Number of FCI godowns and foodgrains stored

†3065. PROF. R.B.S. VARMA: Will the Minister of CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) the total number of FCI godowns in the country alongwith the States where they are located at;

(b) whether Government are aware of the details of the foodgrains and quantum thereof stored in these godowns;

(c) if so, the details thereof;

(d) whether Government are considering to construct any new godown of FCI in the country; and

(e) if so, the States where these godowns are proposed to be constructed alongwith the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI SUBHASH MAHARIA): (a) to (c) The total number of Food Corporation of India (FCI) godowns in the country as on 30.6.2003 are 1733 (Owned and Hired/ Covered and CAP) and the stocks of foodgrains stored in these godowns is 17.22 million tonnes. State-wise details are given in Statement-I (See below).

(d) to (e) The FCI constructs the godowns at various locations in the States/UTs taking into account the storage needs based on inflow and outflow of foodgrains in a particular area. The construction programme of FCI depends on the availability of resources.

During the Tenth Five Year Plan (2002—2007) the FCI proposes to create storage capacity of 6.42 lakh tonnes all over the country. During the current Annual Plan (2003-04) the FCI proposes to create storage
